“Heather was always the friend that felt like family to me. I lived nearby, right across the freeway in fact... i used to spend so much time with her when we were kids in middle school, and into high school... I have so many fond memories with her from those days. We played video games together, made crazy noises, and I had so many good laughs with her, Holly, Hillary, Harlan and Rita. I remember her contagious laugh, sometimes she would laugh so much she would turn red and we just would laugh until it hurt. There were days we would talk until night came, fall asleep on the phone and wake up in the morning talking again without ever hanging up... Heather is a beloved woman that God now has within his arms.. it pains me to know she's no longer with us.. though I know there will be a day when we all can see her again.. and hear that contagious laugher. From Your Old Friend, Alex..
