

Hubert W. Landry

August 24, 1942 - December 31, 2024

Hubert Winfield Landry, age 82, passed away peacefully in his home in Spring, Texas with his loving wife, Carol, by his side on December 31st, 2024. Hubert was born in Jacksonville, Florida on August 24th, 1942.

Hubert graduated from Lutchter High School in Orange, Texas and continued his education at the American College of Design and the Fluor Drafting School. Hubert served in the Texas National Guard for 8 years. His major career as a designing engineer in the oil and gas industry allowed him to travel and to live with his wife, Carol and his daughter, Dawn in many beautiful places around the world such as Amsterdam, Paris, Milan and Singapore.

Hubert retired in 2010. During his long retirement, Hubert was able to enjoy the interests he had: playing golf, playing the acoustic guitar, and traveling with the love of his life, Carol, his wife of 61 years. Hubert was a loving and devoted husband and father. He was known for his sense of humor, upbeat nature and intelligence.

Hubert is survived by his wife, Carol Tyler Landry, who he first spotted across a dance floor and immediately knew she was the one. He is also survived by his daughter, who he called “the apple of his eye”, Dawn Landry-Liska, her husband, Larry Liska, and nieces and a nephew.

Hubert was preceded in death by his mother, Mary, his father, Hubert, and his sister, Francis.
