

Hugo Alonso Valderrama

September 15, 1980 - November 15, 2025

Hugo was a very intelligent, kind, and capable man a good friend, father, and husband, always willing to help with the smile that defined him. He loved what he did, and he enjoyed playing golf, practicing karate, and soccer. He was a Real Madrid fan, and on game days there was no way to pull him away from the TV. In fact, he would listen to the match on different devices with different commentators. It was a bit stressful, but at the same time very characteristic of him.

He always woke up early and made arepas for breakfast. He loved spending Sundays at home; he would start the day watching soccer and then continue watching TV with Paula, or he would make Sundays a special day to go to the movies with her. He was a very dedicated and loving father, always willing to spoil his children. A great friend who left a mark on every person who knew him and had the opportunity to spend time with him.

Hugo was a devoted husband, sometimes a bit absent-minded, but he always tried to do what was best for us. A great professional, intelligent, dedicated to his work, with a vocation and passion that defined him, earning the respect and affection of everyone who had the opportunity to work with him. Hugo was also an exemplary son and brother, radiating love wherever he went.

Hugo, you planted love and respect in all of us who surrounded you, and today you see the fruits of that through the presence, words, and love of the people who honor you. We love you and will miss you, but we know you are in heaven, watching over us, guiding us, and protecting us. Thank you for the love and passion you gave us in life, and for giving your life for us. From wherever you are, please watch over us and protect us. We love you.
