He was born to Michelle and Jason Lopez of Lafayette, Louisiana on June 30th, 1998. Hunter went to Schindewolf Intermediate School and Klein Collins High School in Spring, Texas.

Hunter loved so many and was loved by so many more. He had an energy with even just one encounter you would remember him for life. “ Way too many tears laughing with you about the everything under the stars . I give all of those years of growing up to our memories we had in BL from accidentally starting a fire in the field with fireworks.to when you fell from ur bros 2nd story window sneaking out with the loud ass metal ladder (he was good) hahah to going to the Bridgestone pool and splashtown all the time and for some reason I vividly remember when we watched Project x you had put me on👊 I enjoyed every second in your company and at your house you were a huge part of my life . I’m still in shock I wish I could’ve done something different you know we were immediate homies I always had your back and I still do. see you on the flip side bro.

“ It’s crazy how time flies from the boy I knew in high school to the man you are today. I’m so grateful for all the memories we got to make. I wish I could tell you one last time how proud of you I am with all that you have accomplished over the years. From you being so young you helped my bestfriend raise Bentley and then created two of precious gifts of all cayden and Layla who I promise to always be there for and care for when they need someone the most I will always look for them and i promise to make sure they know who you are and how much their father loved them. I love you hunter
