

Ida May Litscher

May 22, 2019 - September 4, 2019

Ida Chiritree Litscher, born May 22, 1919, passed away Wednesday, September 4th, 2019 in Houston Texas at the age of 100, 4 months

Both Ida and her husband John were born and raised in Shelton, Connecticut and after their marriage lived in Milford and Oxford, Connecticut. Ida studied Dance at a very young age and started her own dancing school when she was still in elementary school. Later she and her future husband performed as a dancing team in the Shelton area and in New York City. Later, as a married couple Ida helped her husband by keeping the books for his home building business. Both were also active in their church, the Oxford United Church of Christ. Ida served as a Deaconess and helped with management of the church budget. Over the years, she had many close friends at church, in town and in her neighborhood. After her husband's retirement, they were enthusiastic RVers, traveling extensively with their RV friends.

At the age of 98, having lived as a widow alone in her own home, Ida decided to move to Texas to be near her son and daughter-in-law. She moved into The Village at Gleannloch Farms in Spring Texas and soon got to know many friends there among the residents and the staff. After a fall, Ida had surgery for a broken bone. The following day, she anticipated walking again with physical therapy. She thanked the nurses who had been taking care of her and told them: "I think I'll go to sleep for a while". She then died peacefully in her sleep.

Preceding her in death were her parents, Arthur M Chiritree and Siri Aqualina Larsson Chiritree, her brother Roy Chiritree, her husband John J Litscher, her brother-in-law Charles Litscher and wife Eileen Burke Litscher, niece Kathleen Litscher Rehnborg Fortin, her sister-in-law Margaret Litscher Cottrell and husband Ernest Cottrell and son John Cottrell, her sister-in-law Alice Litscher Bushey and husband Wally Bushey and niece Judy Bushey.

Living family members are: son John J Litscher and daughter-in-law Doreen Sepp Litscher, grand daughters, Jennifer Marie Litscher of Conroe, Texas and Diane Litscher Broach and Son-in-Law Kevin Broach, Great-Grandsons Ryan Broach and Evan Broach of Spring, Texas, daughter Verne Litscher Walsh and Son-in-Law John J Walsh and Grandson James D Walsh of Palmetto, Florida, niece Marge Bushey Barlow Knapik and husband Gary Knapik of Naugatuck Connecticut.

A Celebration of Life will be held At The Village at Gleannloch Farms, 9505 Northpointe Boulevard, Spring, Texas 77379, (281 569 2999) Tuesday, Sept 10th 2019. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations in remembrance of Ida Litscher be sent to her church The Oxford United Church of Christ, 3 Academy Road, Oxford, Connecticut 06478 (203 888 6186).

The family would like to thank the staff at Gleannloch Farms for their support, kindness and caring attention they gave so willingly to Ida and all the residents.

Tribute Wall

“ Ida May Litscher

July 20, 2022 at 05:14 PM

“ Country Basket Blooms was purchased for the family of Ida May Litscher.

September 09, 2019 at 03:30 PM