

Inez Passmore Shoemake

August 21, 2011

Inez Passmore Shoemake, age 94, passed away on August 21, 2011. She was born on August 17, 1917 in Kirbyville, Texas to Myrtie and Henry Passmore. She grew up in Vinton, Louisiana and graduated from Louisiana College in Pineville in 1939 with a Bachelor of Arts in Education.

She moved to Liberty, Texas in 1957, received her Master's in Education from the University of Houston in 1960, and taught at Liberty Junior High School until retirement. She was a member of First Baptist Church in Liberty, a charter member of both Teacher's Credit Union and Liberty County Art League. She enjoyed traveling, painting, music, and loving her family and the Lord.

She is preceded in death by her husband, David Carroll Shoemake. She is survived by her two daughters, Kay Kinnison Foreman and Shonny Winkler and her husband, Jerry, all of Houston. There are three granddaughters, Tracy Fritts and husband, Jeff of Tomball, Erin Thomas of Aurora, Colorado, and Hayley Thomas of Richmond, four great-grandchildren, and a sister-in-law, Louise Passmore of Orange, Texas.

They family wishes to give special thanks to Christa Jernigan and employees of Ponderosa Ranch Personal Care Home and to Lighthouse Hospice of Tomball for their dedication and concern.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations are requested to be sent to her favorite charities, the Wounded Warrior Project.org and Smile Train.org or the Veterans Administration.

'The will of God will never take you where the Grace of God will not protect you.'

The Addison family and staff of Addison Funeral Home extend our condolences to the Shoemake family in their time of loss.
