“ As President of the Woodcreek Property Owners Association, Mrs Hablinski and I shared two common goals; that was, to keep Woodcreek beautiful and make it a safe place to live. Mrs. Hablinski was always straight forward with what she thought and was not afraid to express her opinion. At one point I got off the board, and she encouraged me to get back on the board because she said Woodcreek needed a strong figure on the board, and thus we became good friends. I sometimes brought her barbecue brisket and corn beef. About 2 months ago she asked me to bring her some when I barbecued. I regret that I did not get to fulfill that request, but now I rejoice that she has traded her earthly home for a better heavenly home. My wife and I will surly miss her.
