

Ivan J Wagner

February 27, 2012

Ivan J. Wagner Jr. was born December 01, 1919, in Sioux City, Iowa, to Ivan J. Sr. and Otilla Hutton, Step-mother Laura. He was married to Eileen Marie Wagner on 5-16-1942. They celebrated 69 plus years of marriage. Ivan and Eileen had three sons, Gary, and his wife Barbara, Ivan J. III, and his wife Rand-Mae, Steven, and his wife Kathleen. He has 7 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Ivan was preceded in death by his father Ivan, Mother Otilla, step-mother Laura, brother Harold J. and nephew David.

Ivan graduated from Trinity College in 1942, with a degree in pre-med. He also had his private pilot's license, so he enlisted in the Army Air Core during WWII. During cadet training he flew BT13'3, graduated to the AT^ which he had to bail out of over Mesquite, Texas. He then served as a gunnery instructor at the AFB in Laredo, Texas. At the end of WWII, he was sent to military hospital in Colorado Springs, to work in the labs and help discharge the wounded service men.

After the war the family moved to Oakland, California, and Ivan was hired by Shell Oil Company. He worked in Emeryville until 1971. He was then transferred to Houston and worked in the research labs until he retired from Shell Oil after 37 years. He was a 70 year Maso, and a member of the Scottish Rite and the Arabia Shrine Temple. He served as Shrine Patrol president in 1989. As an active member of the Shrine, he joined the Patrol and marched in completions and participated in fund raisers for the Shrine Circus which supports the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital

The Addison family and staff of Addison Funeral Home extend our condolences to the Wagner family in their time of loss.
