

James William McGregor III

January 27, 2025

James “Bill” William McGregor III was born in Cumberland, MD in January 1974 to James and Cindy McGregor. He attended Fort Hill High School, but ultimately graduated from Mount Markham High School after his family relocated from Maryland to Central New York in 1991. After graduating, Bill enlisted in the US Airforce, and married his wife of 27 years, Shannon Barringer McGregor. Bill served in the Air Force for 8 years, and during that time, also earned his bachelor’s degree in computer science. While in the military, Bill and his family were stationed in Florida, and then Nebraska before they ultimately landed in Spring, TX near family. Bill and Shannon raised two boys together, Anthony and Chad.

Bill was known for his ability to fix or “hack” into anything electronic, which served him well in his career. He held many roles over the years, including a forensic investigator and most recently a Network Technician with the Harris County Sheriff’s office. He was a big kid at heart, and loved motorcycles. He was sarcastic, and enjoyed giving those he loved the most a hard time. He loved his country and his family, and there wasn’t anything he wouldn’t do for those he loved.

Bill left behind many that loved him, including his wife Shannon, son Chad (and fiancé Danielle), mom Cindy, dad Jim (and wife Kim), sister Melissa (and husband Josh), and his niece and nephew Katherine and Parker Heier.

Bill was preceded in death, by Anthony Barringer, his son.
