

James D Morris

May 21, 2015

James " Jim " Dale Morris, age 75 passed away May 21, 2015 in Humble, Texas. He was preceded in death by his father John D. Morris; mother and step-father Earlene and Hugh Sullivan; and grandson Jason Sebren.

He is survived by his brother Jack " Wally " Morris; son James E. Morris; daughter and son-law Jessica and David Doyle; step-daughter Donna Lalosh; step-daughter and step-son-law Leasha and John Davis; along with numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

We thank him for his love of our country and for his service in the United States Coast Guard. A Military Honors Ceremony and burial will be at Houston National Cemetery - date and time are pending.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to his charity of choice: Fishers O'Men is a not-for-profit IRS approved 501(c)(3) ministry organization that helps teenage boys understand what God's plan is for them - becoming a real man. With too many broken families in our communities, there are students out there who would like to be a part of something bigger. F.O.M. will find a way to take these kids to and from church, share with them the word of GOD, encourage them scholastically and teach them to be responsible for their actions.

They have tutors for the kids who struggle. They take them on mission trips to local communities to be of service to those less fortunate. They also take them fishing, camping, to the beach, ballgames, concerts, etc. These students need the support, mentoring and structure that Fishers O'Men offer.

Matthew 4:19 - Jesus said, "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men."
