

Janay Strango

June 11, 1963 - August 11, 2025

Janay Marie Strango, age 62, passed away peacefully on August 11th, 2025.

She is lovingly survived by her mother Dixie; her two devoted sons Paul and

Mark; her siblings

Denise, Kenneth, Eleah, Chalene, and Lyra; and her cherished grandchildren.

As the eldest of her siblings, Janay embraced her role as a loving caretaker and guiding presence throughout her family's lives.

Born and raised in California, Janay attended Redding High School before eventually making her home in Tomball, Texas. There, she discovered a passion for arts and crafts that brought her immense joy, particularly crochet, macrame, and jewelry making. Her enthusiasm for macrame was infectious, she delighted in sharing her crafts with others.

Despite facing many personal challenges and struggles, Janay lived with remarkable joy and contentment. She was a devoted mother and grandmother who would do anything for her children and grandchildren. Her gift for storytelling was legendary among family and friends; she had an extraordinary ability to make everyone laugh and cry through the vivid tales she shared from her life's journey.

Janay's legacy is one of creativity, resilience, and unconditional love. While we mourn her passing, our family finds comfort knowing that she is finally at peace, free from pain and surrounded by eternal joy.
