“ Mom was an amazing woman that was gracious enough to take me into her family and heart and I have been truly blessed because of it. Who knows where I would have ended up without them! My love and prayers are with Mom's family today and always.

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting you, but non the less I was blessed by being able to have your daughter (one of the greatest people in the world) in my life.

A poem I wrote called until we meet again.

Heaven cried for the pain in my heart.
