

Janice Standage Wade

September 5, 2016

Janice Standage Wade, 60, of Spring, Texas, passed away September 5, 2016 in The Woodlands, Texas. She was born in Athens, Georgia to Charles Wendall and Norma Lee Stoabs on August 24, 1956. She graduated high school from John Marshall High School in Oklahoma City, OK. Janice earned an associate's degree in theology from The Way College where she spent several years traveling and serving in ministry. Following this, Janice moved to Florida with her first husband to raise her three children. Janice became a teacher for special needs students in the Houston area after earning her bachelor's degree in education from the University of Central Florida, where she graduated magna cum laude. After moving to Houston, Janice married local Houstonian Terry Sanford Wade. The two were happily married for ten years and three days. Janice was an avid reader, a skilled cook, had a tremendous sense of humor, and enjoyed watching movies and spending time with her family. Her calm and quiet demeanor, empathy for others, and kindness were seen immediately by all who made her acquaintance.

Janice is preceded in death by her sister, Priscilla (Phillip) Barrett. She is survived by her parents, Wendall and Norma Stoabs of Oklahoma City, OK; husband, Terry Wade; brother, Dustin (Laura) Stoabs of Edmond, OK; children, Brent (Kelly) Standage, Elisabeth (Skip) Cordrey, and Melanie (Martin) Yost; four grandchildren, Cole Cordrey, Abigail Cordrey, Emmit Cordrey, and Kathryn Standage.

Tribute Wall

“ Janice Standage Wade

July 20, 2022 at 05:14 PM

“ Terry and family, we are so saddened by your loss. We're glad that if only for a short time we got to meet and love Janice when you and her would visit with Alice at church. She has been in our daily prayers since we found out she had health issues.It's o

Don&Shirley Bowser - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ Don&Shirley Bowser lit a candle in memory of Janice Standage Wade

Don&Shirley Bowser - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM