

Jason Christopher Coquel

September 7, 1982 - July 27, 2021

Jason Christopher Coquel passed away suddenly on July 27, 2021, at the young age of 38 due to auto accident. He was born on September 7, 1982, in San Antonio, Texas, although he and his family moved to the Spring area when he was 8 years old. He always looked forward to Thanksgiving and Christmas celebrations every year with family in San Antonio. Jason is survived by his terrific 17 year-old son, Jordan Taylor Coquel, his parents, Robert and Mary Garcia Coquel, aunts and uncles Thomas Garcia, Ramon and Debbie Garcia, and Emma Garcia Lingelbach, and numerous nieces and nephews. His immediate family also includes his cousins Debra G. Manzano, Raymond Garcia, Alexandra G. Poe, Matthew Garcia, and Martin Garcia, John Lingelbach, and Jay Lingelbach. We know Jason has now joined his Grandparents in heaven Martin and Susie Garcia, Georges and Vera Coquel, and uncle, George C. Coquel. Jason was owner/artist at the Crow's Nest Tattoo Parlour in Spring, TX, and was highly regarded in the tattoo community for his talent and abilities. His artistic legacy lives on through colorful body art proudly displayed on the bodies of countless appreciative clients and friends far and wide. Jason was a huge fan of local sports teams, primarily his beloved Houston Astros. He would support his teams by proudly wearing their apparel and jewelry, especially at home games. He also was an avid disc golfer and enjoyed hunting with friends. Jason was such an attentive and loving father and son. He had such a big heart and would do anything for friends or family. We love and miss you greatly but have comfort knowing that someday we will be together again.
