

Jeanie Ashlie Chor

November 27, 1968 - July 8, 2023

Jeanie Ashlie Chor, 54, passed away on July 8th, 2023 at HCA Northwest Hospital in Houston, Texas surrounded by her loved ones. Jeanie was born on November 27th, 1968 to Bak Seng Chor and Chay Ngim Koo in Battambang, Cambodia. They immigrated to the United States in her teenage years and she graduated from Verdugo Hills High School in 1986. After high school she attended the Professional Institute of Beauty from which she graduated in 1991 and obtained her cosmetology license. Jeanie married Ven Soon Chan on May 3, 1992 in Los Angeles, California.

Jeanie worked as a cosmetologist for many years in the San Gabriel Valley area of Los Angeles County. She and her family later moved to Spring, Texas in 2009 where she continued her cosmetology career for several more years. In 2012, she transitioned into a service industry role and managed several Chinese restaurants. Jeanie retired from work in 2018 when she was diagnosed with Parkinson's.

Jeanie was an incredibly bright and loving woman, and was an absolute foodie at heart. She loved to eat good food and try new things. Prior to her Parkinson's diagnosis she loved to cook. She enjoyed mixing up flavors and creating new dishes. She also loved to shop. She could take down a Macy's store on her own if there was no one to stop her. Jeanie loved to be surrounded by people, especially her loved ones. Jeanie and Ven shared a love for Chinese dramas and action movies. They have spent hours watching many shows together and enjoying one another's company.

Jeanie is survived by Ven, her husband of 31 years, daughter, Jacquelyn Chan, and son, Malcolm Chan. She is also survived by her mother, Chay Ngim Koo, brothers and sisters: Muy, Mai, Jimmy, Jason, and Andy as well as their spouses, and her numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, and extended family.

Our family would like to thank you all for your overwhelming love, prayers, and unconditional support. Your kind words and outpour of goodwill and concern have made this difficult time a little easier. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts, and may God bless you always.
