

Jeanpaul Correa

April 1, 1978 - March 8, 2022

(The late) Jeanpaul Correa passed away departed this world at his home, peacefully in his sleep, on March 8, 2022, at the young age of 43.

Jeanpaul was born in Houston, Texas at Memorial Hospital as a proud man of Chilean decent. He grew up in South West Alief, where he created life long friendships and brotherhoods that lasted beyond his time. He later moved to Spring, Texas where he fell in love with the city and made it his permanent home with his family. Here, he raised his daughter and surrounded her with a caring mother, big brother and two loving sisters, as one big happy family.

Jeanpaul had a natural way with people. He worked in sales on various levels, where he achieved great success. He later established a company with his loving wife, Alicia, selling flooring.

He could light up a room with his smile and charismatic personality. Jeanpaul was known to always have a funny story to tell, a joke to be cracked and pranks to be played on co-workers and family. He was the kind of guy that would give the shirt off of his back to a perfect stranger, with no questions asked. He had a fierce love for his family and always provided for them.

Jeanpaul's greatest achievement was being a father to his daughter and best friend, Chanel Correa who was the light of his world.

Jeanpaul loved hard and gave us all many lasting memories that will be cherished inside all of us.

“Blessed by the Best “

“ When he first met my mom, I was in the 7th grade. No matter what every single day for the whole year he would bring me to Starbucks before school for a Venti Double Chocolate Chip Frappuccino . He showed up and showed out for whatever I needed him for. He loved strong❤️
