Celebrating THE LIFE OF JEREMIAH

Jeremiah Dominic Semmes was born on Friday, December 13, 2024, at St. Luke's Hospital in The Woodlands. He attended Bell's Christian Academy in Spring. His favorite colors were yellow and red, and he especially loved waffles and pancakes. Jeremiah enjoyed "playing the PlayStation," "drifting" in his walker, and spending time with his friends at daycare. He had recently started walking and loved rearranging the furniture, often pushing chairs around the house. His siblings will always remember him as the littlest - yet bossiest - one of them all.

Jeremiah had the sweetest smile and the deepest dimples. He could truly brighten anyone's day with just one smile. Although his life was far too short, Jeremiah showed a vibrant spirit, a compassionate heart, and a natural gift for bringing joy to everyone around him.

He is survived by his devoted parents, Casandra and Korey Semmes; his maternal grandparents, Tisha and Humphrey S. Davis III, and Alton Gilbert Sr.; his paternal grandparents, Crystal Semmes, and Yolanda and Kevin Semmes Sr.; and his great-grandparents, Marilyn Arnold, and Sandra and Clyde Gabriel. He was the beloved baby brother of Jakorey, Miyah, Ayden, Naomi, Nyla, Kylie, and Kassidy. Jeremiah was the cherished godson of CanDance Davis, Priscilla Hunt, and Terrill Banks Jr.

He is also survived by his aunts, Kevia Semmes, Crystal Davis, Aleisha Talton, and Tyrienisha Smith; his uncles, Kevin Semmes Jr. (Lorelei), Keith Semmes (Sunshine), Kyle Semmes, Kevin Semmes Jr., Kristian Semmes, and Alton Gilbert Jr.; along with a host of great-aunts, great-uncles, cousins, and loved ones.

Jeremiah was preceded in death by his great-grandparents, John Romas; Clovis and June Semmes; George and Beverly Brokeman; Toby and Anna Gilbert; and Humphrey S. Davis Jr
