

Jerry Ray Haynes

July 30, 1944 - July 16, 2024

Jerry Ray Haynes was born in Houston, Texas on July 30th, 1944, to Pauline and Henry Haynes. He was raised with his twin sister, Judy, and younger brother, Michael. Jerry graduated from Jefferson Davis High School. In 1964, Jerry met his future wife Gail at a sock hop at Aldine High School and quickly decided that they were meant to be. After a quick courtship, they were married. They shared three children: Pamela and twins, Michael and Michelle. Jerry was drafted into the US Army during the Vietnam war. While serving in the military he attained the distinction of being selected to be an Army Drill Sergeant, where he served out the remainder of his military career. After returning home, he began a career as a pipe fitter and after additional schooling became a journeyman and proud member of the local union. Growing up, Jerry enjoyed going fishing with his father and uncle. He loves all sports, especially baseball; later in life he even coached his daughter Michelle's softball team. Jerry also loved stamp and coin collecting. His bond with his twin sister Judy grew as they got older with frequent phone calls as she lives in Shreveport, LA; at the end of each call was "I love you, sister!" and praise for the loving bond he shared with our lord.

Jerry is survived by his twin sister, Judy Rausch; his brother, Michael E. Haynes; daughter, Pamela Wiswell and her husband Kenneth; daughter Michelle Ayotte and her husband Mike; and many cousins, nieces, and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Pauline and Henry Haynes; his wife, Gail Haynes; and his loving son, Michael A. Haynes.
