“ We were so blessed to have Jerry as our neighbor. So loving and thoughtful, always lending a helping hand. Jerry would be walking and stop and just go waving his arm until I noticed. It always brought great joy to my morning just to see his heartfelt hello. Sometimes the kids and I would run out and visit with Jerry and his little dog Diesel. He always had so much joy, I'll never forget his smile, his stories, the love he shared in his stories of his wife and his family. It is very sad to know we cant share these days with you again but we will cherish the memories of you forever. Praising God for bringing you in our lives. Until we meet again. ....Long Family

“ There is a port of no return, where ships may ride at anchor for a little space and then, some starless night the cable slips, leaving an eddy at the mooring place... Gules, veer no longer. Sailor rest your oar. No tangled wreckage will be washed ashore. Jerry McMeans rest your oar, we have the watch. John "Bo" Harrel, NCCS (SS) USN RET.
