“ I first met Mom before I ever met my wonderful husband. It was in September of 1969 as a freshman just starting at William Paterson College. She was the cashier in the cafeteria and I had gone in for a student job. I remember how she knew all the prices without looking at the price list and how she remembered so many of the students that came through the line. Now 52 and a half years later she is at home in heaven. Till we meet again, Mom. Love Barb
