“ I remember the time when Joanne lived with us when Andi was born. As a 13 year-old, I was trusted by my aunt to care for her daughter (with my mom's supervision) for the summer while I was off from school. I will never forget this special time. I also remember that she had the Michael Jackson "Thriller" record...which we listened to all the time. I will miss her, and my thoughts and prayers go out to Andi and Randall.

“ Joanne was always so helpful and kind in our work together creating Tweets about Democratic candidates back in 2020. When I told her about my love of science fiction she sent me Stephen King's book "The Stand" and I loved it!

I will miss her kind presence and hold her memory in my heart as a blessing. Safe journey dear friend & may the fairies guide you because the angels aren't as playful & mischievous!

“ Andi introduced Joanne and I. We were online activists working together every week, and sometimes everyday. Our friendship grew out of that, and we became “real life” friends.

I was lucky to count as a friend someone as generous with her love as Joan was, as whip smart and committed to a world that tends its vulnerable (that’s where her daughter gets those shared traits from).

My heart breaks for you Andi and Pokey. Keep striving to be your best version of yourself. For your mama, and because you get to.
