

John Robert Aikman

February 5, 1964 - November 26, 2024

In loving memory of John Robert Aikman, who was born on February 5, 1964, in Fort Knox, Kentucky, and passed away on November 26, 2024, in The Woodlands, Texas. John fought valiantly against cancer, facing his diagnosis with remarkable courage and resilience. John graduated from Spring High School in 1982 and had a diverse career that included being a truck driver, security officer, and juvenile probation officer. He was known for his sentimental nature, hilarious sense of humor, and loving spirit. John embraced life on his own terms, never worrying about society's expectations. His passions included baseball, especially as a devoted fan of the Houston Astros, rock and roll music, Mexican food, and Dr. Pepper. Above all, he cherished spending time with family and had a special affection for his beloved cats.

He is survived by his devoted wife of 37 years, Sharol Aikman; his daughters Jennifer Duckworth and her spouse Mark Duckworth, and Brittany Aikman and her spouse Don Gulley Jr.; his son Christopher Aikman; and his cherished cats Kit Kat, Pokey, and JoJo. John was preceded in death by his parents, James and Barbara Aikman, his brother James Aikman, and several beloved pets, including Orbit and Bonkers. John will be remembered for his originality and the joy he brought into the lives of those around him. He leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and cherished memories that will live on in the hearts of his family and friends.

“ My Uncle John will be missed in so many ways for different people. The last of the Aikman family that I grew up with. The last in my immediate family. The one who brought rock and roll into my life and has been the connection to so many others. Thank you uncle John for the good memories we shared. Until we meet again... ”
