“ I pray that God brings all of you comfort. I am sure... without a doubt, that after all the years of illness; John is finally free! Free from pain and suffering and able to be his mischievous, sarcastic, playful self in the presence of our heavenly Father! I have missed that smile and nature for a few years now. Remember This is just a temporary home. He will live forever in our hearts!!!! Hold on to the good memories, that smile and the hope we will see him again!

“ Dear Patrice, I only knew your John for a few years because I was new to the area, but when we would ride together to Louetta Road Baptist Church and spend time doing "sitting down" help for our Wednesday night meal, I found him to be a quiet and thoughtful man with a wry sense of humor and an indomitable spirit of calm and bravery. I pray you can take comfort that your John is resting peacefully and pain free in the arms of Jesus. Much love, Linda Phelps
