

John 'Jamie' James Algeo Jr.

July 27, 1960 - April 29, 2024

John Jamie Algeo Junior, known affectionately as Jamie, passed away surrounded by the memories of cherished moments with his beloved pets, family, and his love, Candice Fogle, with whom he shared 20 of the best years of his life. Born on July 27, 1960, to June and John Algeo, Jamie leaves behind a legacy of love and family. He is survived by his daughter Lisa Plank, and her husband Tom Plank, along with Blaise Algeo and Garrett Fogle. Jamie is also reunited with his daughter in heaven, Katrina Algeo. Jamie was a beloved sibling to his sister Valerie, who married Jim Foley, and his brother Scott, who married Trisha. He leaves behind a cherished family, including his niece Jenna, his bonus niece Lana Hendrickson, and his nephews Justin and Jason. Jamie's grandchildren, Sean and Jaxson Plank, Brody Misha, and his bonus granddaughter Emme, brought immense joy to his life. Throughout his life, Jamie was known for his unwavering love for his dogs Sparky, Iggy, and Trixie. His passion for fishing was only matched by his dedication to his family, spending countless hours on Scott and Trish's boat, forming the unbeatable Algeo brothers #DreamTeam in cornhole alongside Scott. Jamie's love for sports knew no bounds, excelling in football, lacrosse, and various other athletic pursuits. From watching the Giants on Sundays to rooting for the Yankees, Jamie was a true sports enthusiast. Yet, amidst his varied interests, his greatest joy came from the bonds he shared with his friends, who were the cornerstone of his life. Whether spending leisurely afternoons on the beach or exploring antique car shows, Jamie lived life to the fullest. Though he may be gone, his spirit will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. Jamie will be remembered for his warmth, love, and the enduring impact he had on those around him.
