

John Chandler Kimble

March 12, 1959 - July 7, 2024

John Chandler Kimble was born as the youngest of nine children on March 12, 1959, in Huntington, West Virginia to George and Jewel Kidd Kimble. He graduated from Sylvania High School in Ohio in 1977.

Shortly after graduating, he moved to Houston, Texas and worked in his parents' frame shop before moving to New York City to continue work as a stock trader at Merrill Lynch. While living in New York, he attended Pace University studying Business Administration. He returned to Houston in the early 1990's to work as a Real Estate Agent before starting his successful career as a self-employed Locksmith, which he practiced under the name J.K. Locksmith for nearly thirty years until his passing.

John had a deep love for animals, often stopping to help wounded strays, and enjoyed watching nature documentaries. In his younger years, he was an avid golfer and ran several marathons. One of his favorite past-times was attending all sorts of concerts, especially with his daughter. He was a very loving, passionate, and charismatic person, who never met a stranger. He was held in high regard by his many friends and business associates. He always was the aspiring rock 'n' roll star and enjoyed singing and playing guitar.

John will be forever missed by his family. He is survived by his daughter, Lauren Martin and her mother, Deanna Myers; his sister, Karen Slater and her husband Robert “Bob” Slater, and brother, Kurt Kimble; his half-brother, Tom Morris; his Uncle Robert “Bob” Kimble; and many beloved cousins, nephews, nieces, and friends; and his cherished cats, Mimi and Pippa.

He is preceded in death by his parents, George and Jewel; and his siblings, Diana Winton, Donna Dorris, Abigail Eggink, George Kimble III, and Cindy Kimble.

If you are unable to attend John's funeral services and would like a copy of the memorial folder, please email Addison Funeral Home (addisonfh@yahoo.com) for a digital copy.
