

John Saracene

January 31, 2015

John Anthony Saracene, 77, passed away on Saturday, January 31, 2015. Born in Syracuse, NY on November 13, 1937 to Alfred & Rose Saracene, John was a resident of Tomball, TX. He is survived by his daughter, Renee Martin & husband Charles, of Tomball, TX, son, Gordy Saracene, also of Tomball, sister, Roseanne Saracene & partner, Bev, of Liverpool, NY, brother, Al Saracene & wife Charlotte, of Cortland, NY, and brother-in-law, Gordon Chalone, of Fulton, NY. He is also survived by his grandchildren, Nicole Baker & husband Alex, Adam Martin, and Bryce & Grant Saracene, and his great-grandson, Jax Baker, as well as numerous other family members and friends.

John married the love of his life, Jayne Chalone, on September 30, 1961. He lived a decorated life and celebrated numerous accomplishments over the years. He was awarded All City football player at CBA High School in Syracuse, NY, and then went on to earn his bachelor's degree at Oswego State and his Masters of Social Work at Syracuse University. John served in the National Guard, was a teacher at New York State, a counselor at Hillbrook Detention Home for Juveniles, and also served as an emergency room psychiatric evaluator at St. Joseph Hospital in upstate New York. Alongside Jayne, he served as spokesperson for the National Liver Foundation.

John lived life to the fullest. Lovingly known by "PaPa John" to most of his Texas family and friends, he loved to cook and was known for his homemade meatballs & sauce. When not in the kitchen, you could find him on the golf course, painting one of his beautiful pieces of artwork, or with his family. Many weekends were spent at his grandsons' football games. His contagious laugh and his bigger than life personality will be missed by all.

Services for Mr. Saracene will be held in New York.
