

Jon-Carter Lee Carr-Walls

December 20, 2003 - July 25, 2022

Jon-Carter (Carter) was born December 20, 2003 in Tomball, Texas to Dennis Walls and Grace Carr. Carter passed away July 25, 2022.

Carter made an impact on so many lives and he would always try to be great in whatever he did. As a young kid you would often find him dropping in bowls at Houston's downtown skatepark, shooting hoops at the local basketball court, hunting, or fishing in the neighborhood pond. Carter also loved football. He started out playing pee wee football and played all the way through High School. If you made it to a Klein Collins football game you would have been able to spot Carter kicking field goals through the uprights. Carter also loved golf, shooting pool, and playing his guitar. Carter also had a dream of being a Marine and serving his country. In addition to trying to be great at everything he did, Carter had these distinctive characteristics. He was generous, kind, thoughtful, considerate, hard-working, compassionate, and courageous. If you were struggling, Carter would often dedicate his time to helping you. Most importantly Carter had the biggest heart, he was a friend to so many, and he was the best son.

Carter left this world too soon but we will see him again. He touched the lives of so many people. We take comfort in knowing that Carter's legacy will live on in the lives of others.

Let's celebrate the life of Jon-Carter Lee Carr-Walls.

“ Carter, where do I start? Your Uncle David and Aunt Jane love you so much. We are heartbroken you are no longer here so we can witness all the milestones you will reach. Eighteen years is just not enough time. You were the best mannered, well rounded young man. You always surprised us at what you could do whether it was skateboarding, football, baseball, swimming, playing the guitar, fishing just to name a small number of talents you had. You name it you conquered it. You were fearless. I wish I would have told you one last time when we texted last how much you mean to me and how much I love you. I will never get that chance and that is what hurts the most. The fact we will never get to see your beautiful face again just hurts so much. You were like a son to Jane and I. Thank you for being our ring bearer on our most special day. When we celebrate your 7th Anniversary tomorrow we will be thinking of you. I will never forget you Jon-Carter. We Love You So Very Much precious boy. Until we reunite again, we will hold you in our hearts.
