

Josephine Torres

March 19, 1925 - March 31, 2023

Josephine left this world surrounded by her family and their love on Friday, March 31, 2023. Josephine was born in La Porte, TX in 1925 to Guillermo and Estefana Ramirez.

She was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and most importantly friend. Josephine had four children, Anna, Theresa, David, and JoAnn. She had twelve grandchildren and numerous great grandchildren. Josephine raised many babies in her lifetime, while also taking care of household chores, but she always made sure to take time for reflection and prayers, even in her later years.

In her 98 years on this Earth, Josephine has seen an abundant of great wonders from the many births of her future generations to the beautiful sights across the United States.

She was a tough and strong lady her whole life, but she was never afraid to show her silliness and laugh whole heartedly. She was an excellent cook, but also loved to go out to eat and enjoy time with her family (she had expensive taste in food). She loved to travel and got to experience many wonderful and glorious sights. Josephine was a beautiful soul and young at heart, she will live on forever in her family's hearts and memories.
