

Joyce Elaine Hey

March 10, 2011

Joyce Elaine Becker Hey was called home to the Lord on Thursday, March 10, 2011 in Houston, TX. She was born on Nov. 30, 1930 to Richard A. and Elise H. (Bruns) Becker in Houston, TX. After Joyce graduated from Stephen F. Austin High School, she worked as a secretary for Gulf Oil Co. for 10 years before she married Bill Hey on July 6, 1957 and began a career as a loving wife and mother. She is preceded in death by her loving husband of 53 years, Charles W. "Bill" Hey, Sr. She is survived by her two children, Elise Hope (Hey) Antoon and husband James Antoon of Baton Rouge, LA., and Charles W. Hey, Jr. and wife Rachel of Magnolia, TX; grandson, Charles William Hey, III and girlfriend Kelly Husfeld of Magnolia, TX; step-grandchildren, Rachel Myers, Chris, Emily, and Logan Dowell, Natalee and Annalee Antoon. Her sister-in-law is Doris Duran and husband Chuck of Mountain View, CA. Her close cousins are Gus, Eunice, Doug, and Joanne Hillegeist, John, Barbara, Zach, and Katie Currier. Friends and loving caregivers are Marilyn Myers, Lori Meridith, and Mary Alice Walker. Pallbearers are Doug Hillegeist, Paul Vaughn, Jeff Kirk, Jeff Kubeczka, Chris Dowell, and Eugene Meyer. Joyce's service will be at her church of over 50 years, St. Matthew Lutheran Church of Westfield. Visitation will be held from 1:00 until 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon on Sunday, March 13th at St Matthew Lutheran Church of Westfield, 21434 E Hardy Road, Houston, Texas 77073. The service will begin at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon with the Rev. Dr. Ronald A. Bogs officiating and vocalist Lester Sentesi. Internment will be at 11:00 o'clock in the morning Tuesday, March 15th at Sons of Herman Cemetery in Schulenburg, TX. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the St. Matthew Lutheran Technology Fund, the North Oaks Baptist Church, The Gideons, or Lottie Moon Foundation.

The Addison family and staff of Addison Funeral Home extend our condolences to the Hey family in their time of loss.
