

Judy Ann Van Horn

January 12, 2011

Judy Van Horn passed away peacefully January 12 at 9:45 am surrounded by her most caring and loving family members in her home where she was a companion and caregiver to several Alzheimer & Dementia patients throughout the years. She truly had a special gift from God to comfort and care for the elderly and their families during the most difficult time in their lives.

Judy, a native of Berlin, New Jersey was born on August 22, 1941 to Herbert and Ruth Van Horn. She graduated from Haddon Heights (NJ) High School and began her career in Hospital Administration which took her to various states until settling in Texas in 1983. In 2006, Judy welcomed her first Alzheimer patient into her home.

Prior to the end of her up and down 7 year battle with cancer, Judy courageously made her trip to New Jersey over the New Year's holiday. Never complaining despite the pain, she would not be denied the occasion to be together one last time with all of her children. The lessons of an honest hard day's work, to walk in another person's shoes and that character, not circumstance, makes the person, will be with us forever.

Judy was predeceased by her parents Herbert and Ruth Van Horn and survived by her brother James (Virginia) Van Horn of The Villages, Fla., daughter Christa Lyn Jernigan of Houston, sons Steven (Cindy) Volkert of Merchantville New Jersey and Jason (Shana) Volkert of Spring. She has been blessed by the time spent with her 9 grandchildren, Kirsten, Melissa, Clay, Allison, Katelyn, Glen, Carson, Victoria and Santana.

The Addison family and staff of Addison Funeral Home extend condolences to the Van Horn family in this time of loss.
