

Karen Ruth Meyer

November 16, 2014

Karen Meyer, 67, died unexpectedly at Lexington Place Nursing Home in Houston, Texas on November 16, 2014. She was born Karen Ruth Miller in Port Arthur, Texas in 1947. Karen attended Thomas Jefferson High School in Port Arthur, and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Math from Lamar University in Beaumont when she was 21. Karen then moved to Houston, Texas, where she became a long-term resident working as a computer programmer during most of her career, and briefly as a part-time substitute middle-school teacher in her later years. She was a member of St. Mark Lutheran Church and belonged to the Houston Lutheran Chorale during its early tenure there. She is survived by her only brother, Galen Miller; her sister-in-law, Sally Miller; a niece, April Miller (20); a nephew, Thomas Miller (17); a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and a dear friend from her chorale days, Sue Dobrowski.

As Karen was a lover of big dogs, and in lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Humane Society in her name.
