

Kathy Lee Vaeza

August 6, 2017

Kathy Lee Vaeza, 68, of Spring, passed away in Houston, surrounded by the love and care of her family and friends. She was born in Mangum, Oklahoma on May 22, 1949 to James and Madeline Roach Kathy grew up in Oklahoma and attended Oklahoma State University. She retired from Dril-Quip in Houston, Texas as a project manager. The love of her life was her grandson, Abel, and spent hours dedicating herself to him.

Kathy is survived by her son, Mike Vaeza, grandson, Abel Vaeza, father and stepmother, Buddy and Joyce Roach, sister, Pam Koudelka and many, many loving friends and family members. She is preceded in death by her mother, Madeline Moore. Kathy is now the free spirit she always strived to be. Fly with the Angels, dear Kathy. We will miss you so much, but we will see you again one day.

“ People come into our lives through family or friends. Kathy came into our life through friendship. We've enjoyed her creativity, her love of gardening, her talent with cloth or yarn. We've enjoyed sharing meals and countless conversations over the years.
