“ Ken and I were elders about the same time at Bammel and I remember his wise counsel and clarity to discuss various subjects, the Bible and problems facing the elders. He was a good friend and partner elder. I miss him very much.

Susan, may God provide you comfort and peace with his passing.

Our friendship goes back a long ways, Ken & Charles, back to ACU days. I know you are mourning the loss of your wonderful husband & father and there are many others, who are sad because of our loss. Ken was always smiling, which is somewhat rare these days. I have prayed for peace for him, as well as comfort for those he leaves behind. I know the last years have not been easy, with his declining health. He is free of pain and discomfort now that he is in the arms of Jesus. Ken was such a devout Christian servant and now he will receive his reward. I love you all and especially the good times and precious memories we have when we taught Sunday School together, as well as the other activities that brought us all together.

Please know that Charles & I are here for you, whatever you need.

Your family is so special to us.

Much love to all,

Penny & Charles Murdaugh
