I live in Ken's neighborhood and had the opportunity to meet him several times over the last 9 years. If he didn't know who you were he wasn't bashful about stopping and asking who you were and where you lived. I know this first hand as Ken did this to me the first time I ever met him. Every time I would see his white dually truck I would say there's Ken whether him or his wife was driving. i offer my sincere condolences to him and his family and may Ken rest in eternal peace.
