

Kenneth Matherly

March 4, 1965 - September 5, 2021

Kenneth Matherly “Kenny Diehl” born March 4th 1965 in Portsmouth, Virginia, passed away on September 5th 2021 in Houston, Texas at the age of 56. His beautiful smile and amazing soul will be forever missed. Most people will remember him from his previous love of selling roses on 1960 and I-45 for over 30 years. His wonderful personality brought joy to those who knew him. He is survived by his three daughters Renee Stricklin, Shelby Stricklin, and Kimberly Matherly; granddaughter Emmy Elizabeth Stricklin; three sisters Robin Becker, Sharon Hopkins, and Michelle Leathers; three nieces Tiffany Paden, Destiny Trevino, and Toni Norris; nephew Christopher Diehl; and brother Carl Diehl. We love you Kenny. So rest in peace until we meet again.

His memorial will be held at Addison Funeral Home 18630 Kuykendahl Rd. Spring, TX on Friday, September 17th for family and friends. Arrival of guests welcome between 10:30-11:30, Pastor Andrew will begin ceremony at 11:30am.

“ I don't have any memories to share because I do not remember you . I was your youngest child but I hope that now your in heaven you see what kind of great person you created and what you missed out on. I always wondered what you were like and I don't hate you since your the reason I'm alive . Rest In Peace
