

Lillian Collinsworth

February 13, 2018

Lillian "Juanita" Collinsworth, 90, began her life in Wisner, Louisiana on December 12, 1927 and was called home by her Lord and Savior on February 13, 2018. She was the first born of 5 children to George and Mabel Aswell. She was married to her husband of 50 years, Andy Collinsworth. They moved to Houston, Texas in 1957.

She enjoyed her career as a bank teller until she retired after 33 years of service. Juanita loved to garden and work in her yard. She enjoyed baking, reading, working puzzles and just being surrounded by her family and friends. She was an active member in her church, and was devoted to her faith and serving her Savior. She radiated God's love in her life to everyone until her entrance into heaven's gate.

Preceded in death by her parents, George and Mabel Aswell; husband, Andy Collinsworth; son, Dale Collinsworth; son-in-law, Ray Hendon; granddaughter, Mackenzie Seidel; 2 brothers and 2 sisters.

Survived by daughter, Barbara Hendon; daughter, Rhonda Seidel and husband, Brian; granddaughter, Dana Zuercher and husband, Jay; grandson, Jason Hendon; granddaughter, Sydney Russell and husband, Garrett; grandson, Cade Seidel.

Great-granchildren, Collin Zuercher, Morgan Hendon, Lane Hendon, Brett Hendon.

Great-great granddaughter, Daisy Savell.

The Addison family and staff at Addison Funeral Home extend their condolences to her family.

Tribute Wall

“ Lillian Collinsworth

July 20, 2022 at 05:14 PM

“ Such a sweet lady.....from the time we met when she was buying groceries at Epps Super Market in East Houston to the time she was a teller at East End State Bank some 45 yrs ago when she would cash my $10 checks, she was always so nice to me. She will alw

Dale Lowe - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ What a wonderful and truly loved lady , I?m so going to miss her, when we moved next door to her years ago, she was the first person we met, she had a pitcher of ice tea (it was hot) which she had made for us, from that day on we grew close, my heart is h

Lynda Caster - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ Lynda Caster lit a candle in memory of Lillian Collinsworth

Lynda Caster - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM