

Linda Diane Trahan Moody

May 28, 1955 - October 22, 2020

Linda Diane (Trahan) Moody, 65, was born in Houston, Texas to Curtis and Irene Penny. Linda live the majority of her life in Houston.

Linda enjoyed her children and grandchildren most all. She was most referred to a “Silly granny” or “Silly grandma”, maybe even crazy at times. Linda would go out of her way to make sure her grandchildren were entertained, whether her health truly was up to it or not. She would dress up as a clown for birthday parties, ride roller coaster rides until she nearly puked, take them to bingo, snapchat sillies with them, act silly in Walmart, let them put make-up on her, lay in the bed and take selfies, basically, anything that would get a smile and a happy moment out of her little angels, she would be in, one hundred percent. She had so many that weren’t true grandchildren that called her “Grandma, or Granny”, and she treated them all the same. She took so much joy in loving all children.

Other joys that Linda got out of life was music and dancing. She was taught to dance by her parents at a very young and She taught her children to dance at a young age at a venue on Lake Houston. A song would come on that would bring up a memory and she would grab whoever was close, a child of hers or a grandchild, and would want to dance in the hallway or kitchen. Her health may have not accommodated it in her last years of life, but she still had it in her and would suffer through the pain.

Of love of family was Linda’s greatest attribute. She loved everyone without discretion, and unconditionally. If you needed a dime and she didn't have it, she would go out and find you a quarter. She loved her Husband, Thomas, with all of her heart. The two of them took care of each other until her last days at home. Linda was a mother figure to nearly everyone, even her younger siblings. There just aren't enough words to speak about her unique ability to love and want to take care of everyone around her.

“ Damn near my entire life, from a little kid on up to being an adult, every Dec 11, my birthday, my beautiful Aunt Linda would bring me a Christmas tree. I've always felt so much love from her. She even got married on my birthday when I was a little girl. She got married, went to the tree lot then came and seen me at Grandma Helen house. Best friend I could talk to about anything in the world.

Linda was not only my sister she was also my sister/mom. Growing up as a little boy, Linda was not allowed to go the mail with the other girls unless she took me. That was the rule of our father. I guess my father thought that would keep her away from the boys. Boy was he in for a big surprise. All through life though if I ever needed her she was just a phone call away. It did not matter what time. I want you to know sissy that life is not the same without you. REST IN PEACE SISSY AND I WILL SEE YOU AGAIN WHEN THE LORD HAS PREPARED MY FINAL RESTING PLACE IN HEAVEN WITH YOU AND ALL MY OTHER LOVED ONES. Until then you may be gone but you will never be forgotten.
