Tribute Wall

“ Condolences to the family of Linda Thompson. I know of her more than I knew her. I know her to be a very strong woman. I have experienced that strength, independence and determination in her daughters and granddaughters. I know where that comes from. That was her blessing to them that has affected their lives and those around them. Its often hard to understand and easy to underestimate how one life touches others. Her life was a blessing to her kids, and was a blessing to all those who knew her.
