

Lisa Pope

May 23, 2014

Lisa Annette Pope, 53, joined her parents, Bill and Glenna Miers in the arms of the Lord on May 23rd, 2014, from her home in Spring, Texas. The youngest of three children and the only daughter, Lisa was born in Dallas, Texas on August 21st, 1960. She married her high school sweetheart and the love of her life, Jimmy Pope, on the top of Roan Mountain in Tennessee on May 20th, 1984.

Lisa is survived by her faithful husband of 30 years, Jimmy, and her two devoted sons, Adam and Andy. She is also survived by her two brothers, Mike and Chuck and numerous beloved family and friends.

Lisa received her education while in Tennessee, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and a Master of Science degree in Education. Her passion was working with troubled teens. She had the ability to connect, encourage and give worth to everyone she met. Lisa had a love for music and was surrounded by amazing talent with her husband and boys' music ability. Lisa had a contagious joy about her. Her positive insight into all situations gave strength to everyone around her. It is hard to describe the tremendous loss felt by all who were lucky enough to know her. Lisa, we love you and will see you on the other side.
