“ I am saddened to learn my long time friend has left us.....I've know Lynn since the late 60's and we remained friends for so many years, losing touch because of moves and marriages and kids all that life holds and reconnecting numerous times. We had again lost touch due to moving and getting different phones, etc. and for the last year I've been trying to find him and sadly discovered he's gone on to a better place....I'll miss my good friend and our fun chats and remembering our younger years and all the trouble we got into because of course we (at that age) thought we knew EVERYTHING! lol Rest in peace my friend and I know we'll on day see each other again and catch up like all the other times..... Dora I'm so sorry for your loss....Lynn really adored you....Ann L
