“ *Martice,
You said there would be a circus and you were right. I'm sorry I cannot be there today, and I wish I could do more for your Mom. I will miss you and I'm doing what I know to do. Your son is a wonderful man and has all of your good qualities. You*

“ My deepest, heartfelt, sympathies to Martice's family, friends, and loved one's.

Martice was my supervisor, in 2002, and was a loving, kind, high spirited woman. She was always smiling and had a passion for her family and life.

She never met a strange

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies to Martice's family. News of her passing came as quite a shock, to say the least.

Although Martice and I met only once, she and I communicated frequently as we worked together on a rather large and difficult project fo
