

Mary Major

October 24, 1959 - September 8, 2025

Mary had a lot of life to live and she loved it to her fullest. She battled cancer three times, but her heart decided that she needed to go home. She went to join her husband John and all of those family members who left her for heaven and have now welcomed her back home with open arms.

Mary is survived by her son Travis Caka and his wife Kari and their children Harlee and Hannah. Her daughter Lysie Caka. Her sister Judy Hunter. Her niece Amanda Feagin and her husband Cody and their daughter Mackenzie. Her niece Charmarie Dotson and her husband Michael and their children Chance, Nathan, and Andrew. Her brother-in-law Ronald Moore. Her great-nieces Madison, Savanna, and Emersyn Quinn. Her pseudo-son Bo Deaton.

“ I met Mary back in February 2000. I was a subcontractor, and she was my go-to coordinator—bar none, the best at booking flight tickets and hotels. She was great.
But one thing I remember most is when I was getting ready for a job. She called me on September 11, 2001, and told me to stop what I was doing and go look at my TV. Those were scary times, and I was truly frightened. All those people dying, and for what? Seven virgins on the other side? I love this lady, who was always looking out for me. She will be sorely missed.
I apologize for reaching out now, as I have been going through cancer treatment. I know she believed in God, and I hope she is sitting right next to Him. We love you, Mary. I'm sending a peace sign up to the sky.

“ I knew Mary from Safety Vision and I was instantly hooked on her sense of humor and intelligence. I don't think there was anything she didn't know. She was also a very caring person and help those in need. Rest In Peace funny lady and enjoy the rest of your heavenly life with the love of your life; John.

“ During Mary's time at Safety Vision, she helped me out in many ways. We would go eat each week at a Mexican restaurant and discuss our work week or our family. She was definitely my work buddy! I missed her when she left SV and will miss her now.

“ We began as colleagues and grew into close friends. For 17 years, Mary stood by my side, not only as a colleague but as the person I could always count on to help me get things done, and she did it all with incredible efficiency and grace.

Mary was a friend to so many, a devoted wife to John, and a loving mother to Lysie and Travis. Her warmth and kindness touched everyone around her.

I am grateful I had the chance to be with her before she passed, to share old stories, laughter, and even a few tears. Those moments will stay with me forever.

Mary, I like to think you are now holding hands with John in heaven, laughing and enjoying each other again.

Thank you for the impact you made on my life, and for being such a wonderful friend.

God bless.

“ I only met Mary a few times at company Christmas parties. My regret at her passing & condolences for her family and loved ones comes from my knowledge of how kind, friendly, and helpful she was to my husband Chris, her coworker. RIP Mary Majors

“ Losing a mother is one of the deepest sorrows a heart can know. But her goodness, her caring and her wisdom live on like a legacy one of love that will always be with you. May that love surround you now and bring you peace.

Our deepest condolences 🙏
