

Matthew Ross Ripley

July 22, 2013

Matt was born in Ainsworth, Nebraska on February 16, 1983. He graduated from Aldine Sr. High in 2001 and continued to work on Business Management degree and Electronic Engineering degree from ITT.

Matt was raised in Houston, Texas during his childhood he enjoyed being a member of the Navy Sea Cadets for several years. Matt also enjoyed fishing and hunting with his grandparents and later enjoyed these times with his closest friends. During his high school years he was a very involved in the Aldine Mighty Mustang Marching Band and known to his classmates as "Crash Ripley". Cooking was one of Matt's favorite hobbies and we will all miss his "Matt Burgers", barbeque, charro beans, chili, crawfish and many more. Matt's children meant the world to him, he enjoyed the time he got to spend playing, reading, napping and watching movies on the sofa with that big bowl of popcorn or ice cream.

Matthew is survived by his 3 wonderful children Savannah (age 5), Elijah (age 2) and Mason (age 1). Ex-wife Samantha Ripley (mother of Savannah and Mason), mother Brenda Gonzales, father William Ripley and step-father Ricky Gonzales. Five sisters Samantha, Shelbi, Angelique, Deanna-Marie and Kira, neice Mary Jane, grandmother Charlotte and other family and friends.

Matt is preceded in death by his grandparents Ceile and Doris Ripley, Eugene

Brown Sr. and aunt Mary Jane Brewer.
