“ I'm so broken and sad since you passed, I can't find the right words to tell you how much I wish you were here and that this was a dream, it hurts every single day you are not here to see our children grow, it breaks my hearth knowing that you not going to see Victavious grow, he's so big and has a big hearth just like you, Sara reminds me so much of you, the way she watches tv side way just the way you did, nothing is the same with out you, I can't tell you with all the right words but you will always will be in my mind, I miss you Mike you always knew what to do, you left such a big place empty of you but jet so full of all the things you were suppose to do with us. until forever

*A life cut short.. with so much promise.. Mike's death has left me crumpled in a corner rethinking why I am here.. totally devastated...do not understand why?? Have memories.. but don't want those.. want him still sharing in these moments... feel for his children.. who now have uncertain futures.. was never meant to be like this... he was a selfless and most wonderful father... may be all aspire to be just an ounce of who he was.. will be thought of daily and missed greatly ...
