

Michael Crain Levand

August 14, 1939 - October 12, 2020

Michael Levand, 81, of Houston, Texas, passed away at home on the 12th of October, 2020, as he lost his fight against cancer. He went peacefully to the Lord with his wife Cheryl at his side. Michael was a very giving person and was always there to help anyone in need. He loved many things in life such as golfing, flying, boating and his garden. Michael was an active member to the HOA and all neighborhood activities and functions. Michael was an honorable member of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary.

The beloved husband is survived by his wife Cheryl and family pet Maxine, his sister; Mary Casano and many nieces and nephews, of which he loved very much.

I knew Mike from work, we socialized a bit when we both lived in the Houston area. He was a great guy and always asking if I needed a ride to the airport or anything. I have fond memories of him. Prayers for Cheryl during this time. Dave Coleman, Lafayette, CO

I knew michael as a young man when he owned his pool hall. Words arent sufficient to fill the life he had. A jokester and avid fisherman and boatsman,we had many adventures in his blue van with cheryl and max. He was as old school as it gets.
