

Mona Hobby

October 18, 2017

Mona Leigh Hobby was born on January 26th, 1951 and died on October 18th, 2017 in Spring, Texas. Mona died peacefully in the morning after a long struggle with Scleroderma. She was a strong and brave woman with a big heart. Mona was born in Orange, TX and grew up in Beaumont, TX. She studied Mathematics and Computer Science at the University of Texas and attained a Master's Degree with high honors. She had a 30-year career as a Computer Programmer at Exxon and was able to retire early at the age of 55 to pursue her passions.

Mona was vastly intelligent and intriguing. Her mathematical brain and attention to detail led her to indulge in intricate projects. Throughout her life she dedicated her free time to many organizations including political campaigns, leading her daughter's girl scout troop, becoming President of her neighborhood's swim team, as well as the HOA. Her seemingly endless interests included genealogy, calligraphy, tarot, photography, aromatherapy, sewing and needle work, spirituality, and physics. She made exquisite works of art, especially in water color. She was nurturing, kind, and helpful to those in need.

Mona was preceded in death by her father, C. Randall Thomas; mother, Cynthia Thomas Brunson; husband, Royce Randolph Hobby; and son, Geoffrey Alexander Hobby. Her survivors include son, Matt Hobby of Ashland, OR and daughter Maureen Hobby of Boston, MA; sister, Laura Thomas Beavers of Kerrville, TX and brothers, Randy Thomas of Jewett, TX, Degge

Thomas of Oak Valley, NJ, and Ned Thomas of Houston, TX.

A private natural burial was held at Tranquility Oaks Cemetery on October 22, 2017 by Addison Funeral Home.
