“ My deepest condolences goes out to all of Monica’s family and loved one. Monica was a free spirit the 7 years I knew her she was a big goofball, but she had a loving heart. When I was told she was sick my biggest regret is I didn’t reach out, but I am glad she lived her best life and got everything she always wanted. She deserved nothing but happiness. May she rest in peace with her Dad and Pops. You will be greatly missed by lots. Fly high with the angels Moni aka La Roo.

“ When I talked to Monica a few weeks ago, she still had so much life left in her. She was telling me how she was so sick a few days prior and basically had to crawl to the bathroom because she had one TWO many margaritas. She said they were good too!!! But my first memory of Monica was when she was a baby. I picked her up to carry her and she cried and cried that I had to give her to my mom because she hurt my feelings. Going to miss you Monica!

“ Thank you Moni, for showing us what pure love looked like. No matter how many months apart we went without seeing one another we always picked up right where we left off. I loved hearing all the stories you had about us growing up. I remember when Nevaeh wanted her Selena cup and you stood in line just to make sure she had hers. Just riding around in corpus squished in the back of a car and laughing because we had so much fun that day. My most recent memory is that beautiful smile you gave when we filled your room. You were selfless, loving, and always bounced back with grace. You always loved hard and made sure everyone around you was good before yourself. Today we get to lay you to rest, and finally see you pain free. We love you so much. You are now home in Gods hands. Rest easy our beautiful cousin ❤️ Thank you for the memories we did get to create.
