“ I feel so blessed to have been able to meet little Myah. Madison and I had become neighbors, and I to have a baby girl, so we bonded over our love for them both, and seeing my daughter interact with Myah just warmed my heart.

She was, and always will be the cutest, most precious little girl I have ever had the pleasure of being around. To say she will be forever missed is an obvious understatement, but God has another little angel with him now, and we can all just keep her memory alive by, remembering her cute little face, and cheeks, and that adorable precious little lip quiver she would do when her mommy lovingly sang to her. Thank you Myah for the time I did get to spend with you. I know I will get to see you again someday.

-So much love and prayers
