

Nancy Hennessy

June 4, 2016

Nancy Hennessy, 78, of Houston, TX passed away June 4th 2016. She was born April 5th 1938 in Memphis, TN. Nancy is survived by daughter, Allison Hennessy.

Daughter of Fred Barry Nisbet and Bessie Belle Hale, and sister to Fred Nisbet Jr., Nancy attended San Antonio, Jr. College where she met William Hennessy, whom she married, and many lifelong friends. She also attended Our Lady of the Lake University, and where she graduated with a degree created for her in Drama/Theater. She began a career in TV and Radio in San Antonio, cohosting the Chris Chandler show, interviewing local and national/international figures, until her move to Houston where she worked as a spokesperson and promotions coordinator for Finger Furniture for many years doing commercials and sharing home design tips on Dialing for Dollars and the original Good Morning Houston. Later, as a free-lance talent, she did numerous voice over and on camera commercials and industrials for businesses as well as writing and producing. She was a lover and rescuer of animals, especially dogs and cats, and she loved music and the arts and great writing. Please send donations to ASPCA or The Wildlife Center of TX in lieu of flowers. The Memorial is at Addison Funeral Home on Wednesday, July 13th at 4:00 followed by a reception at Hasta La Pasta on Cypresswood.
