

Naomi Geraldine White

May 9, 1944 - August 2, 2021

Naomi Geraldine White entered life on May 9, 1944 in Brooklyn, New York bringing great joy to her parents, Ella Louise Turner and James Alexander White. She departed this life on Monday August 2, 2021, in Spring TX at the age of 77.

Naomi was a former member of Ebenezer Wesleyan Methodist Church of Brooklyn, NY where she was baptized and married.

Naomi was a child at heart - she loved eating cotton candy, chocolate covered cherries, potato chips and drinking root beer soda. Naomi enjoyed playing her video games on her I-Pad; her favorite games were fashion story and bakery story. She also loved watching The View and Jeopardy every day and Joel Osteen every Sunday morning. Naomi Loved her birthday and thought it was a national holiday; she loved receiving many balloons on her special day.

Naomi worked at Pan American Airlines until the doors closed in 1991 and then she pursued a career in driving, obtaining her CDL license which made her very proud. Naomi retired from driving buses in 2006.

Naomi grew up in a large, loving family filled with laughter and fun, and was very affectionate and loving to her grandchildren and great grandchildren; always concerned about their wellbeing.

Naomi now joins her mother Ella Louise Walker and stepfather Razal Alexander Walker in heaven. She will also be reunited with her daughters Rhonda Michelle Burton and Kim Rochelle Burton.

Naomi's passing is a great loss to her beloved family and friends. She leaves to cherish her memory four children: Michael A. Burton, Chevelle M. Burton, Louis G Burton, and Johnny L. Burton. She also leaves behind 10 grandchildren: Naomi, Latoya, Sydne, Joshua, Jocelyn, Jazmyn, Jalon, Jessica, Jordan, and Nakailah, along with 6 great grandchildren and longtime companion Ronnie L. Hill and a host of Cousins, other relatives and friends who will miss her beauty and laughter.
